JACOB KOHNSTAMM
Before his appointment as Chairman of the Dutch Data Protection

Authority in 2004, Jacob Kohnstamm was active in Dutch politics as member of the Lower House of the Dutch Parliament, as State Secretary for Internal Affairs and as member of the Senate of the Dutch Parliament (between 1981 and 2004). Before that, he worked as a lawyer in Amsterdam.

Since February 2010, Jacob Kohnstamm is Chairman of the Art. 29 Working Party of European Data Protection Authorities.

Since November 2011, Jacob Kohnstamm is also Chairman of the Executive Committee of the International Conference of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners.

CHANTAL BERNIER
was appointed Assistant Privacy Commissioner of Canada in December 2008.

Ms. Bernier started her career in the federal government as a lawyer in the Department of Justice Canada.

She went on to hold a directorship at the Privy Council Office before being appointed Assistant Deputy Minister at Indian and Northern Affairs Canada, and later on at Public Safety Canada.

She holds a Bachelor of Civil Law from the University of Sherbrooke and a Masters in Public International Law from the London School of Economics and Political Science.

CHRISTOPHER GRAHAM
became UK Information Commissioner in June 2009, with responsibility for overseeing the Freedom of Information Act and Data Protection Act regimes — upholding information rights in the public interest, promoting openness by public bodies and data privacy for individuals. He is the Vice Chair of the Article 29 Working Party of the European Data Protection Authorities.

Christopher was Director General of the Advertising Standards Authority (ASA) from April 2000 to June 2009. From 2003-5, he was Chairman of the European Advertising Standards Alliance (EASA), the federation of advertising self-regulatory bodies across the EU Single Market.
