

Conference on Privacy and Data Protection

NIPFP Technology Policy

Venue: Auditorium, National Institute of Public Finance and Policy, New Delhi

5 September, 2018

From	To	Item
9:30	10:10	Registration & Introductions
Session 1: Paper presentations Moderator: Ajay Shah, NIPFP
10:10	10:30	Disclosures in privacy policies: Does consent work? Renuka Sane, NIPFP
10:30	10:40	Discussant Sunil Abraham, Center for Internet &amp; Society
10:40	11:00	Open discussions
11:00	11:20	Data access by intelligence and law enforcement agencies Faiza Rahman, NIPFP
11:20	11:30	Discussant Madan Oberoi, Special Cell &amp; Tech. Cell, Delhi Police
11:30	11:50	Open discussions
11:50	12:10	Tea break
12:10	12:30	Data localisation in India: Questioning the means and ends Rishab Bailey, NIPFP
12:30	12:45	Discussants Mudit Kapoor, Indian Statistical Institute, Delhi Jyoti Panday, Researcher &amp; Volunteer, Cashless Consumer Collective
12:45	13:15	Open discussions
13:15	14:15	Lunch
Session 2: Analysing the draft data protection bill Moderator: Smriti Parsheera, NIPFP
14:15	14:25	Issues: Principles in the draft bill Vrinda Bhandari, Advocate
14:25	15:10	Open discussions
15:10	15:20	Issues: Implementation and agency design Smriti Parsheera, NIPFP
15:20	16:05	Open discussions
16:05	16:20	Tea break
Session 3: Way forward - Creating a privacy network Moderator: Ajay Shah, NIPFP
16:20	17:20	Open discussions
17:20	17:30	Closing remarks Renuka Sane, NIPFP