

The Hague Institute
for Global Justice

Expert Roundtable on Reconciling Policy Priorities of the Global North and South: Implications for Norms of Responsible State Behaviour in Cyberspace

AGENDA

10.00-10.30	Welcome Tea & Coffee
10.30-10.35	Welcome Remarks: Dr. Abiodun Williams , President of The Hague Institute & Mr. Samir Saran , Vice-President of the Observer Research Foundation
10.35-12.05	Session 1: Policy Priorities and Norms Related to Cyber Security Presenters: Mr. Jan Neutze , Director of Cyber Security Policy, Microsoft & Dr. Andrey Kulpin , Director of the International Center, Information Security Institute, Moscow State University Respondents: Mr. Ian Wallace , Senior Fellow, International Security, New America & Mr. Samir Saran , Vice President, Observer Research Foundation (New Delhi) Moderator: Mr. Ben Baseley-Walker , Program Lead, Emerging Security Threats, UNIDIR
Each presentation will be followed by a response from a designated respondent. A plenary session will take place after the presentations and responses.
12.05-12.10	Summary and Conclusions (Moderator)
12.10-12.55	Lunch
12.55-14.25	Session 2: Policy Priorities and Norms Related to Internet Access and the Freedom of Expression Online Presenter: Mr. Sunil Abraham , Executive Director of the Center for Internet & Society, India Respondent: Dr. Alejandro Pisanty , Director-General, Academic Computing Services, National University of Mexico Moderator: Dr. Richard Ponzio , Head of Global Governance, The Hague Institute
The presentation will be followed by a response from a designated respondent. A plenary session will take place after the presentation and response.
14.25-14.30	Summary and Conclusions (Moderator)